FROM CINCINNATI.

The Old School Presbyterian Assembly—Contested Seats—Death of Rev. Hoover—Pen Portraits of Members.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, May 23, 1867.

Last evening the Assembly was saddened by the announcement of the death of one of its members, Rev. T. D. Hoover, of New Jersey. He took ill on the night of his arrival in the city. He leaves a wife and children. She arrived before his death. She and her little ones have the sympathy and prayers of the Assembly.

Last night's session was consumed in listening to speeches on the question of "contested seats." The contestants, the "Declaration and Testimony" men, have been granted by the Assembly, full liberty of speech, and they seem inclined to make the most of it. It may be a pleasure to them to speak, but it assuredly requires the grace of patience to listen to all they say. Nor will all their speaking avail them anything in the end—the seats they seek they will never occupy. The mind of the Assembly is fully made up. They ought to see that. It must be said to the credit of all the parties concerned on both sides, that they keep their temper admirably. No bitterness has yet been indulged. Even Dr. Breckinridge is good humored. His tongue occasionally cuts like a razor, and his sarcasm has the sting of an adder. He is kind after all.

This morning nominations were made for theological seminaries and the various boards of the church. The election is ordered for Saturday forenoon.

The Assembly here resolved to resume the contesed seat question, and continue it until finally disposed of. A gentleman from Kentucky took the floor, and was not through when the Assembly adjourned for dinner.

This afternoon while the speeches drag their slow length along, let us try to draw a portrait of two or three of the distinguished men figuring in this Assembly. Look first at Dr. Gurley, the Moderator. He is a man of commanding presence. Is full six feet high, well proportioned, and weighs, we should think, two hundred and twenty-five pounds. His hair black, slightly sprinkled with gray, countenance and eyes bespeaking intelligence, mildness, firmness and benevolence. His motions are easy and graceful, and a calm dignity invests him at all times, and alike as he sits in the Moderator's chair, or stands on the platform to speak.

Dr. Fairbairn is a huge Scotchman, stands six feet and four inches high, large head, short neck, wide face, broad shoulders, deep chest, and weighs not much less than two hundred and fifty pounds. He has fair skin, blue eyes, and rather a wide mouth, with thin lips, lying closely and gently together. He is not far from sixty years of age—has a sound constitution, and evidently enjoys excellent health. He dresses plainly, but neatly, and in good taste. His demeanor is gentle and dignified. His broad and high forehead is suggestive of a profound thinker—of a sage philosopher; and his mild blue eyes bespeak him an earnest philanthropist.

The oldest looking man in the Assembly is Dr. Breckinridge. He is not large; is perhaps five feet eight inches, rather slender, and a little stooped by age. His face is thin and caves in mouthward, making his cheek bones and chin look prominent. The brow is heavy and arched, his eyes large, clear hazel, and looks like an eagle's; nose somewhat prominent, and his mouth well chiseled. He does not use the razor, and his beard is rather long, and is almost white. He parts his hair in the middle, and combs it, we should judge, just when it suits him. We take him to be a man nearly four score years old. Age is stiffening his joints, and gradually and rapidly bringing him towards the earth. His intellect, however, seems to suffer no decay. The chief mental endowment is, quickness and keenness of perception. He is a fine speaker; has in his manner a peculiar fascination; can say, and does say most outlandish things—things which from almost any other man's mouth would not be endured. He deserves to be immortalized for his unflinching loyalty. He stood in Kentucky like a wall of fire. Brave old man!

GEN. POPE'S DISTRICT.

Registration in Georgia and Alabama—Important Order Issued.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ATLANTA, May 24.—An important general order on registration has just been issued by Gen. Pope. The following are the salient points: The States of Georgia and Alabama are districted and freedmen placed on every board of registration, registers to take the iron clad oath, and explain to all their political rights and privileges. The right to register and vote is governed by the military authorities. Violence, threats or any oppressive means to prevent persons from registering and voting, to be followed by immediate arrest and trial by a military commission. No contract with laborers, depriving them of wages for any longer time than actually consumed in registering or voting, will be permitted to be enforced under penalty of arrest and trial by the military. In cases of disturbances at places of registration or polls, the civil authorities are to be called upon to afford protection, and in their default the military will see such protection given. Civil officers refusing to protect registers or voters, will be arrested by the military, and tried by a military commission.

FROM NEW YORK.

General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church—Address by U. P. Delegate—Consideration of the Philadelphia Appeal.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, May 24, 1867.

Synod continued its session on Wednesday afternoon. The special Committee on Communion reported in substance that there should be no change in the rule. The report was laid on the table.

The treasurer's report showed that $10,985.56 had been contributed during the year for Foreign Missions, and that $9,685 had been expended.

Rev. E. P. Smith, Field Agent of the American Missionary Association was introduced and addressed Synod, after which a resolution was passed, cordially commending the object presented—the cause of the Freedmen.

Hon. and Rev. R. A. Browne, D. D., of New Castle, Pa., appeared and took his seat in Synod as the delegate from the United Presbyterian Church. Dr. Browne then delivered an address, cordially commending the subject of Union. He spoke of the early history of the two churches, and that as they were almost identical in doctrine, government, discipline and worship, his church would hail with delight any prospect of success there might be of consummating a Union. The cordial greetings were reciprocated according to the usual formality.

Synod took up the protest and appeal of Drs. Crawford and Steele against the regularity of the meeting of Presbytery, held in July, 1866, and already referred to in this report. The consideration of the matter occupied the attention of Synod during the remainder of the afternoon and evening session. A final vote was taken at 10:20 P. M., and the appeal was sustained by a vote of two to one.

Adjourned to meet at half past nine o'clock.

Synod was occupied during the whole of the morning session of Thursday, with the consideration of a second protest and appeal against the Presbytery of Philadelphia, for licensing Mr. G. S. Chambers, on account of his views on psalmody, hearing an address from Rev. Dr. Holdich, Agent of the American Bible Society, and devotional exercises.

Philadelphia Appeal Sustained—Domestic Missions—Next Assembly to Meet in Dr. Douglas' Church, Pittsburgh—Adjournment.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette]

NEW YORK, May 24.

At last night's session of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, the protest and appeal of Drs. Crawford and Steel was sustained by a vote of twenty-three to fifteen. This involves the canceling of licenses to Rev. Messrs. Chambers and Thompson of Philadelphia.

At to-day's session the annual report of the Board of Domestic Missions was read. An increase of pastors' salaries and of the rate for paid probationers, was recommended. For the support of Freedmen's Missions $3,465 had been received during the year, and $2,952 disbursed.

The Western portion of the Church desire to establish a mission in Tennessee, under the care of Wm. Wyatt.

The appointment of Rev. Wm. H. Reid was recommended, with power to visit Lincoln county, Tenn., and report as to the propriety of establishing a mission there.

The American Home Missionary Association, having expressed a desire to take charge of the Alexandria schools, a transfer to that body is recommended.

Rev. J. F. Hill introduced a paper on union, recommending the Committee appointed to proceed to the United Presbyterian General Assembly in session in Xenia, Ohio, to negotiate arrangements for organic union with that body.

The Synod resolved to meet in the church of Dr. Douglass, in Pittsburgh, on the third Wednesday of May, 1868.

The third appeal of Drs. Crawford and Steele against the Philadelphia Presbytery, was taken up and was under consideration at adjournment.

EVENING SESSION.

A report was adopted looking to an investigation of the soundness of R. E. Thompson's (of Philadelphia) views and the revocation of his license in case they are unsound.

A protest was received from the Fourth Reformed Presbyterian Congregation of Philadelphia, against the action of the Philadelphia Presbytery in refusing them representation in the Synod, and asking to be constituted into a Presbytery. The protest was received, and it was resolved that its prayer be granted.

The Board of Superintendents of the Theological Seminary made their annual report, which approved the protest against the organization by Rev. Dr. Wiley and others, who claim the Synod is illegally organized and consequently all its acts are null and void. The protest was received and a Committee appointed to prepare a reply.

At a late hour Synod adjourned until May next.

THE BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES.

Preliminary Gathering—The Colporteurs' Convention.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

The Baptist Anniversary week opened yesterday afternoon, in the First Church of the denomination, with the Colporteur Convention of the Publication Society. The society was organized forty-three years ago as the American Tract Society, out of which the present organization was formed. Its receipts in the first year were but $373. The report below shows the subsequent increase. In its workings it is divided into two distinct and separate parts. It is a business firm, manufacturing and selling religious and denominational books, and is conducted on strict business principles. This department receives no benevolent contributions, but sustains itself by the profits on its sales. No money is asked from the churches to help manufacture books, or to pay the salaries of officers and clerks who are managing the publishing house.

The Society, however, is not simply a business firm, but also a benevolent or missionary organization, conducting a diversified missionary work. It is a Colporteur Society, sustaining many wayside preachers of the Word. It is a Sunday School Society, not only manufacturing a Sunday School literature, but supporting Sunday School missionaries, whose work is to strengthen existing schools, and to establish new ones. It is also a Tract Society, making free grants of tracts to the missionaries of the Home Mission Society of the various State Conventions, and to pastors all over the country. It is a Freedmen's Aid Society, sending primers, spellers, readers, question books, testaments, libraries and missionaries to thousands in the South. And it is to sustain and greatly enlarge this varied missionary work that the Society's agents ask the churches for funds. The work in these directions might be increased a hundred fold if funds were furnished. The business department of the Society instead of being a burden upon the benevolent department, has been its largest donor, paying over, in 1866, $4,000 as profits on books sold by colporteurs.

The colportage department, which occupied attention yesterday, is an exceeedingly important and extensive one, sending out vigorous laborers into waste places, in this and other lands, distributing tracts, Bibles and other books, visiting families, opening Sunday schools, and establishing churches. During the past year forty-nine colporteurs and twelve Sunday School missionaries have been employed in Sweden and Canada and in Oregon, California, Missouri, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and other States, and their reports given below show how faithfully and efficiently they have labored.

The Society is composed of annual members, life members, and honorary life members. Any person may become a member by paying annually the sum of five dollars; or any regular Baptist church or auxiliary Society, may appoint a member by the annual contribution of five dollars, and an additional member for each additional twenty dollars. Twenty dollars, paid in sums of not less than five dollars, are requisite to constitute a member for life; or fifty dollars at one time, or a sum which in addition to any previous contribution, shall amount to fifty dollars, shall be requisite to constitute a manager for life.

At two o'clock, yesterday afternoon, a large audience was in attendance at the First Baptist Church upon the organization of the Colporteurs' Convention. After the singing of "Sweet Hour of Prayer," Rev. Mr. Johnson called the meeting to order, and President J. M. Gregory, of Illinois, presided. The latter delivered an able and feeling address, after which the audience joined in singing "The Morning Light is Breaking." Other Colporteurs delivered addresses, after which the meeting adjourned again, assembling in the evening.

This Convention has no connection with the anniversaries, which will be of the most interesting character.

The Committee of Arrangements are at their wits' end to know how to provide for the crowds of visitors arriving by every train. Probably fully 3,000 are already on hand, and over 2,500 have been furnished places of entertainment by the committee, while many others went directly to the houses of friends. All who may come will be made cordially welcome, but it is necessary that a further display be made of the usual hospitality of Chicago. Thus far the majority of the arrivals have been cared for by the First and Second Baptist Churches. They now feel it imperative to call upon other denominations to assist them in this time of pressing need. Some 400 were lodged at the Tremont House last night, and many others at other hotels. A car load from New York arrived last night. All the accommodations offered were exhausted long before the number then present were attended to, and our citizens will see the urgent necessity of responding at once to the call upon their hospitality, by sending in their names with a statement of the number they can receive to the Central Committee at the Tremont House, as early this morning as possible. We trust that the call will not go unheeded.

Gen. Meigs Going to Europe—Agricultural Report—Cheering Crop Prospects—Extraordinary Loss of Cattle—Confiscation Case—Impeachment Investigation.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 24, 1867.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Quartermaster General Meigs has been granted leave of absence for six months, from June 5th, on account of ill health, with permission to leave the United States. Gen. Meigs will visit Europe.

ORDERED TO REPORT.

Brevet Major General Absolem has been ordered to report to General Ord for temporary duty, his assignment as Assistant Inspector General of the Department of the Lakes remaining.

CONFISCATION CASE—WRIT OF ERROR.

In the case of the United States vs. Joseph Bruin, whose property was confiscated and sold under a decree of the United States District Court, sitting at Alexandria, Judge Underwood presiding, during the war, on application of the counsel for Bruin, Chief Justice Chase, on Wednesday, granted a writ of error, on the following grounds:

First, That the District Court condemned and sold the absolute estate of the petitioner in and to property, which judgment it was beyond the power of the court to pronounce; second, that the condemnation of the property was for treason, of which the party could not be adjudged guilty, except by the finding of a jury; third, that the proceedings were in admiralty, when they should have been upon the common law side of the Court—by information and not by libel.

THE IMPEACHMENT INVESTIGATION.

The Committee on Judiciary sat five or six hours to-day for the examination of witnesses on various subjects, and expect to conclude their labors early in June.

Among those before the Committee this afternoon were General Fullerton and the Washington Agent of the New York Associated Press. As the latter accompanied the Presidential excursion last year, he was examined on several points in that connection.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT—CHEERING PROSPECTS—EXTRAORDINARY LOSS OF CATTLE.

The report of the Agricultural Department for April says:

"Never has there been so general an expression of encouragement in view of the fine condition of the winter wheat since the establishment of the present system of collection of crop statistics. In more than nine-tenths of the returns received the condition of the crop is reported as favorable and promising. From the South, the returns are as cheering as from the west. Here and there it is stated a smaller breadth, from lack of labor or from bad weather in the fall, was sown or drilled. In a few places winter killing is reported."

The report states that the loss of cattle from actual starvation and exposure the past winter is extraordinary. Even in the mild climate of Texas one-tenth of the stock is dead. In the territories similar losses are reported. In Hall county, Nebraska, one-tenth of the cattle perished, in consequence of the ground being covered with snow from the middle of December, until the first of April. Such is the tenor of letters from the South and younger States of the west. The most of the loss, it is added, was plainly avoidable with the proper expenditure of foresight and industry.

RECONSTRUCTION OPINION NOT READY.

The opinion of Attorney General Stanbery, on the reconstruction acts, is not yet ready for the press.

FROM ERIE.

Protestant Episcopal Convention, Diocese of Pittsburgh.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ERIE, May 23, 1867.

The Convention, after religious exercise, at 9 A. M. resumed its regular business. Minutes of Wednesday's proceedings were read. The Secretary asked if motions put and lost must be recorded in the minutes, to which the house, by a vote, answered affirmatively.

The election of a standing committee, and delegates to the National Convention being now in order, was postponed until 3 P. M., and the consideration of the proposed constitution was resumed, discussed, slight verbal inaccuracies corrected, and the constitution reported by the committee was on motion, by Hill Burgwin, of the previous question, seconded by fifteen members, adopted as a whole by a unanimous vote.

On recommendation of the Committee on Charters, Emanuel Church, Corry, St. Clement's Church, Greenville, and ——— Church were admitted into union with the Convention.

The Rules before reported by the Committee on Constitution and Canons were amended by changing the ninth article and striking out the eighteenth, and then adopted as a whole.

A Constitution for the Board of Missions was reported and, after some discussion, adopted.

A motion to pay out of the Convention fund the actual expenses of clerical delegates in attending Convention was adopted.

Rev J. F. Spaulding, from the Committee on Education, read a report which was accepted.

The House refused to instruct the Standing Committee on the subject of hospitalities to Delegates to future Conventions.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the election annually of a Registrar, whose duty it shall be to collect and preserve all ecclesiastical, historical and other useful records and to certify copies thereof when necessary.

Rev. Richard S. Smith, of St. Peter's church, Uniontown, who had acted heretofore as Registrar by Episcopal appointment, was duly elected to the office now created.

The Committee on Education was re-appointed and directed to consider all matters connected with education which might be submitted by the Bishop.

A resolution was adopted requesting Clergy and Laity throughout the Diocese to furnish the Registrar with facts and incidents connected with the origin and subsequent history of their respective parishes.

The Committee for raising a fund for relief of disabled clergymen or their widows and children, reported that about $5,000 had been subscribed, conditioned that a total of $20,000 shall be raised. After some debate, Messrs. Vincent, Lynch and Knap were appointed a Lay Committee to aid in the furtherance of the object.

The Committee on Conference with the Diocese of Pennsylvania reported no action as yet. The Committee was continued for another year.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The subject of assessments for Convention and Episcopal funds for the next year was taken up. Much talk ended with reappointing the old Committee, which was directed to make the assessments.

The Secretary read as supplementary to the Bishop's address a list of of the clergy who had left the Diocese, changed Parishes, or been ordained.

The Secretary also read a communication from W. L. Scott, Esq., President of the Erie and Pittsburgh Railway, tendering a free passage on a special train hence to Pittsburgh for all the delegates.

Received and grateful acknowledgement made by unanimous vote to Mr. Scott.

Similar acknowledgment was made of the generosity of General George W. Cass, in dedicating elegant special cars to the use of the delegates in coming to and returning from the Convention.

Thanks were voted to the citizens of Erie, for their hospitality. Also to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, for the use of their elegant new church for the purpose of the Convention. Also to Rev. Dr. Swope, for his valuable services to the Diocese. Also to Captain T. J. Brereton, for his efficient labors as Secretary. All by unanimous votes.

Among the closing business that followed, were the following resolutions:

That the printing of Parochial reports be abolished, but the Secretary shall prepare tabular reports of statistics for publication in Church Journal.

That the new constitution of the Board of Missions be appended to the Church Journal.

That four hundred copies of the Journal be printed for use of the members of the Convention.

Other matters were discussed and action had, which are omitted as unimportant.

AT 5:30 P. M.—The business of the Convention being finished or deferred, and the hour at hand to adjourn, the Bishop for a few moments addressed the Convention in a most feeling and impressive manner—alluding to the dignity, harmony, christian gentleness and constancy, that characterized all its proceedings, leaving no asperities behind, and pledging his own continued efforts and zeal for building up the Church of our love. The good Bishop declared to the clergy and laity that although placed over them in the work of the Church, he was ready and willing and anxious to work as well under as over his Brethren, so that the Kingdom of our Blessed Master be set forward and upheld. Appropriate devotional exercises were then engaged in—the "Gloria in Excelsis" sung, and the Second Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh adjourned sine die.

British Columbia and the Canadian Confederacy.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—A Victoria telegram says the British Colonist publishes a dispatch of an important nature from England concerning the confederation scheme. Governor Seymour is advised that the first measure to come before the Confederated Parliament of Canada, in August, will be to include in the Confederacy the whole of British North America. He was urged to lay the matter before the Council immediately and request their voice upon the advisability of British Columbia being admitted to the Union. The authorized State debt of the colonies will be assumed by the Confederacy, and its payment guaranteed by the Imperial Government. The Colonist says it is believed the cry for annexation will yet be the means of attracting the attention of the Imperial Government to the deplorable condition of this neglected colony and hasten confederation.

Mr. Greeley's Defiance.

The President of the New York Union League having served notice on Mr. Greeley, that he was to be arraigned before that body for becoming one of Mr. Davis's bondsmen, and citing him to appear and defend himself, he let off a counterblast through the Tribune, closing thus:—Gentlemen, I shall not attend your meeting this evening. I have an engagement out of town, and shall keep it. I do not recognize you as capable of judging, or even fully apprehending me. You evidently regard me as a weak sentimentalist, misled by a maudlin philosophy. I arraign you as narrow-minded blockheads, who would like to be useful to a great and good cause, but don't know how. Your attempt to base a great, enduring party on the hate and wrath necessarily engendered by a bloody Civil War, is as though you should plant a colony on an iceberg which had somehow drifted into a tropical ocean. I tell you here that, out of a life earnestly devoted to the good of human kind, your children will select my going to Richmond and signing that bail-bond as the wisest act, and will feel that it did more for Freedom and humanity than all of you were competent to do, though you had lived to the age of Methuselah.

I ask nothing of you, then, but that you proceed to your end by a direct, frank, manly way. Don't sidle off into a mild resolution of censure, but move the expulsion which you purposed, and which I deserve if I deserve any reproach whatever. All I care for is, that you make this a square, stand up fight, and record your judgment by Yeas and Nays. I care not how few vote with me, nor how many vote against me; for I know that the latter will repent in dust and ashes before three years have passed. Understand, once for all, that I dare you and defy you, and that I propose to fight it out on the line that I have held from the day of Lee's surrender. So long as any man was seeking to overthrow our Government, he was my enemy; from the hour in which he laid down his arms, he was my formerly erring countryman. So long as any is at heart opposed to the National unity, the Federal authority, or to that assertion of the Equal Rights of All Men which has become practically identified with Loyalty and Nationality, I shall do my best to deprive him of power; but whenever he ceases to be thus, I demand his restoration to all the privileges of American citizenship. I give you fair notice that I shall urge the re-enfranchisement of those now proscribed for rebellion so soon as I shall feel confident that this course is consistent with the freedom of the Blacks and the unity of the Republic, and that I shall demand a recall of all now in exile only for participating in the Rebellion, whenever the country shall have been so thoroughly pacified that its safety will not thereby be endangered. And so, gentlemen, hoping that you will henceforth comprehend me somewhat better than you have done, I remain,

Yours, HORACE GREELEY.

New York, May 23, 1867.

Amusements.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Last evening a brilliant audience was in attendance at the Academy, rivalling in point of dress, fashion and respectability any we have ever seen drawn together in the city. REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

OMITTED REPORT.

On Wednesday evening, in accordance with the previous action of the Synod, Rev. H. H. George, preached from Ezekiel 37: 14, "and shall put my spirit in you," &c.

He discussed, first, the common influences of the Spirit: second—His Special. In the first division he spoke of the influences of the Holy Spirit in Nature, in Science, and in Political affairs. In the second division he discussed the special influences of the Spirit in the Regeneration of the Soul, in reviewing the church and in animating the nations.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Yesterday morning, before the Constitution of the Synod, the Moderator, Rev. J. R. W. Sloan, stated that from some telegraphic dispatches in the Eastern papers, "we have reason to hope that our brother Armour is alive. His name appears in the New York Tribune among the saved."

On the calling of the roll of the Synod, the Reporter counted 119 delegates, 69 of whom are ministers.

MISSIONS.

After the reading of the minutes, a member of Pittsburgh reported the Ordination of Mr. James Buck. He goes a missionary to the North West.

Dr. Sproull stated that since yesterday morning, he had had two communications from members of the church in South Carolina, asking the Synod to take steps for missionary labors there. He moved the reference of the request to the Committee on Missions.

T. Smith, who formerly lived in South Carolina, said: There lie the ashes of seven ministers of the Reformed Presbyterian church. When the church existed there slavery, long ago, received its fatal blow. It was never sanctioned by the church there. He traced the history of the church's testimony against slavery in South Carolina. No better missionary field can be selected. The field is inviting and promising. He thought Synod should send a minister there to re-organize the church. The way is open, and it can be done.

Rev. R. Johnston said he had been on the ground during the dominion of slavery, long before the war. Then he received a warm reception. Much more would we be welcome now.

After further discussion, the request was referred.

NATIONAL REFORMATION.

After the disposition of several papers, the subject under discussion the evening previous was resumed.

Elder ——— argued against calling a pastor from his congregation to edit a paper intended to not advocate all, but only a part of the principles of the church, as the plan proposes.

Rev. J. L. McCarthy said that when the proposed movement was made public it produced a sensation throughout the church. But there are difficulties in the way. They may be surmounted. We want leading minds to contribute. But if they take exception to our principles and argue against them, it will lead to difficulty. If Tayler Lewis, for example, should in able articles, argue that the Constitution is altogether christian, it would lead to difficulty. In the late Convention in this city, a judge was called from the bench to give an address, who said he did not believe the Constitution to be infidel. If such leading minds contribute, it will be very difficult for an editor to conduct the paper. Let some wise heads solve the difficulty.

Rev. R. Z. Willson replied. That member fears free discussion, that is all the difficulty. Truth, though fallen for a time, will rise again. Let Taylor write his articles—people who wished to maintain the truth would be satisfied, and thinking men will see his error. There are two sides, as far as public sentiment is concerned. We wish both to be heard, and let all judge, and ultimately the public mind will settle down on the right way.

Rev. J. Hunter. Has Synod anything to do with the proposed paper? Then why ask any more than sanction? If it be a private enterprise, as is alleged, let the manager choose an Editor from the U. P. Church, or even from the Episcopalian. I favor the movement; but if the paper don't favor all our principles, it will be an engine against the church. The paper should not be afraid of any principle we hold. If Synod goes into this movement heartily and choose an Editor, and make the paper an organ of the church, all will heartily sustain it.

Rev. Graham said it is not the province of Synod to appoint an Editor and take judicial control over a magazine. The men who have the private enterprise on hand, are men of heart and purse and they will make it go.

Rev. Smith said that we are called upon to approve of a paper—a private enterprise—with managers unknown to us. This presumes much on us. The Church has contributed largely. We wish to know whom we approve.

Rev. T. P. Stevenson explained the plan. A Board would have charge of the finances. He gave their names. They are all members of the R. P. Church.

Rev. S. O. Wylie said the only question is—does the Synod approve of the action taken for a paper?

Rev. Galbreth said this is just what he wanted. He would vote against a magazine published by this Synod. He preferred it to be private and independent.

Dr. Scott agreed with both sides; he would not urge the Synod to establish a paper, but would ask some control. Alluding to what Rev. Wilson had said, he would agitate, agitate; but he could not consent that Taylor, Lewis, or any writer should advocate principles opposed to the doctrines of the Church.

Rev. Willson. This is the approval of only a project, not a paper.

Dr. Scott. That will not meet the case.

Dr. Sproull. We have not seen the paper. We can only say we approve of the project. If the paper be worthy of approbation, well; if not, we will not sustain it.

Rev. Wilkin said that he feared not free discussion. Truth will prevail. There is talent enough to meet the opposition. The difficulty now in getting our principles before the public is that other papers, such as the Independent, will not admit the whole truth. Ours would admit all.

The motion on the passage of the first resolution in the report under discussion passed unanimously.

The second resolution was amended, and the discussion was protracted. In favor of the resolution Dr. Stevenson, Rev. Boyd, Rev. Todd and others spoke at length. The discussion, in its tone, was like that of the day previous. Before Synod came to a vote the hour for devotional exercises arrived.

AFTERNOON'S PROCEEDINGS.

After recess, Rev. R. D. Sproull moved a committee to report an address on the best means of making prayer meetings the most instructive and interesting,

Rev. Dr. Stevenson, Rev. R. D. Sproull and Wm. Steel were appointed the committee.

DELEGATION TO WASHINGTON.

The Moderator announced the following as the committee to be sent to Washington to lay memorials before Congress asking amendments to the Constitution of the United States, viz: Rev. A. M. Milligan, Rev. J. L. McCartney, and D. Boyd.

Rev. J. S. T. Milligan moved to instruct the committee to memorialize Congress to recognize the Religion of Jesus Christ as the Religion of the nation.

JOYFUL NEWS.

While he was speaking on the motion, he was interrupted by Rev. J. M. Johnston, who read the following telegraphic dispatch from Syracuse, New York:

"Rev. J. M. Armour and family are here all safe—may be at Synod. H. A. PARK."

On the reading of this telegram a sudden and (seemingly) instinctive applause or burst of joy arose from the whole Synod. The Moderator then called upon Rev. Dr. Sproull to address the throne of grace in the expression of Synod's thanks for the joyful intelligence, which was done.

REPORTS.

The order of the day, viz: the hearing of Presbyterial Reports, was called up, and the Report of all the Presbyteries read and referred to their respective Committees.

Rev. Crozier called attention to an omission in the report of Lake Presbytery, that a congregation had been organized in the city of Indianapolis.

NATIONAL REFORM.

The Report of the Committee on National Reform, under discussion before recess, was again taken up, the question being on the adoption of the second resolution, and, subsequently, of the third. They were variously amended, and the discussion long continued. The difference of opinion was as to how much the memorial to Congress should embrace, and the discussion turned principally upon the motion of Rev. J. S. Milligan, giving instruction to the Committee on the Memorial to Congress. The prevailing opinion manifestly was that the instructions should not be given, as the thing sought by the mover is contained in the amendments proposed by the National Association.

By the vote of the Synod, the Moderator was added to the Committee to Memoralize Congress.

Under the motion to adopt the third resolution in the report, a spirited debate arose as to the duty of the minister of the gospel—whether his greatest work is the salvation of the nation, or the convertion of sinners by the preaching of the gospel.

The resolution was amended and passed. (To give even a synopsis of the debate would fill columns of this paper, so that the whole must be omitted.—REPORTER.)

Before the final disposition of the report the hour of adjournment arrived. Prayer by Rev. S. Sterritt.

Synod will meet this morning at 9 o'clock, when the delegation from the Board of Westminster College will be heard.

Suicide in McClure Township.

Yesterday a colored man made his appearance at the Allegheny Mayor's office, and stated that while passing through the woods near the residence of Mr. McClintock, on the Perrysville plank road, he discovered the body of a man lying by a log. He stated that he had approached the body near enough to be convinced that life was extinct, but had not touched it, being under the impression that he had no authority to do so until the Coroner had been notified of the fact. During the day the body was removed to the Allegheny Mayor's office and Coroner Clawson impanneled a jury to inquire into the case. From the testimony elicited before the jury it appears that the man's name was John Hebler, and that he was an employe e at Johnston's blank book manufactory on Wood street. He had been engaged in different book stores in this city for the last twenty-three years and had always borne a high character for temperance and sobriety.

On Thursday he had purchased from G. A. Kelly's drug store, in Allegheny, through some means or other, a small quantity of arsenic, the paper which had contained the same being found near the body. Near by was also found a flask, which had contained whiskey. The jury rendered a verdict of suicide by taking arsenic. No reason can be assigned for the commission of the deed, as he had never appeared to any of his friends to be in any way deranged, or addicted to the too free use of intoxicating liquors. Deceased was a widower, aged about fifty-six years, and has a married daughter residing in Allegheny.

The First Christian Church, Allegheny.

By an announcement in our advertising columns, the congregation above named inform the public of the change in their place of worship from Excelsior Hall, to their new Chapel on the corner of North Commons and Beaver street, Allegheny.

The lecture room of the beautiful building being completed, will offer a more commodious, as well as more comfortable, and quiet place of worship than the room just abandoned by the Church, which had become quite too small. The growth of this church has been very gratifying during the past four years, under the ministrations of the pastor, Elder Joseph King, its membership having been nearly doubled in that time; the result of faithful labor of the minister, and active co-operation of the Church.

To-morrow, and possibly throughout the week, Elder Isaac Errett, Editor of the "Christian Standard" will assist in conducting a meeting, which we doubt not will prove a most interesting one. Mr. Errett bears the reputation of being an accomplished speaker, and ranks among the leading men in the ministry connected with that growing people who take the Bible as their only rule of faith and practice.

The Portland False Pretender.

It was stated in yesterday's paper that a letter had been received at the Mayor's office from Phillip Doty, of Portland, Maine, making inquiries about a young man named Curtis, who had obtained goods to the amount of sixty dollars from him under false pretences, and that he was supposed to be in this city. The letter started some people to thinking over the matter and it turn- out that the said individual did come to this city about a year ago, obtained employment in one of our dry goods houses, and took boarding at a house on Fourth street. Being of good appearance and affable address, he made many friends in the city, whose friendship was evinced by the fact that said Curtis borrowed various little sums of money from them, the most of which still remain unpaid. He also left his landlady two or three weeks in arrears for boarding when he departed from the city, some months ago. He left here for St. Louis, where he is engaged in selling patent rights. There are many people here who are about as anxious to see Mr. Curtis as the gentleman in Portland.

Another Local "Cruelly Sold."

The latest "sell" perpetrated upon a "local" is noticed by the Chronicle of last evening. We "acknowledge the corn," don't feel the least bit angry, and the circumstance shall not disturb our friendly relations with the author of the joke, since we now know who it was that left upon our desk a communication, intending, ostensibly, to give us an item of news. The joke, however, is so bad as to have required detailed explanation by himself. He sought "revenge," has got it, and we are now "square." There is this difference, however, between "our local" and that of our cotemporary, now "crowing" over the chicken story he "cooked" up for us. He did not "acknowledge the corn," or, in other words, that he was sold in acknowledging the receipt from a friend of "an admirable photograph" of the "stern statesman and his friends," his credulity going to the extent of recognizing among the figures the counterfeit presentment of Longstreet, as he had appeared to him in a bona fide photograph. Shall we call it "square," brother P.

Dangerous Practice—Boy Seriously Injured.

On Thursday evening some boys were amusing themselves by jumping from the roof of Carson, Darlington & Co's brewery to the roof of another building close by. A young lad of about twelve years, named William Jamison, whose parents reside on Rebecca street, Allegheny, attempted the leap, but the distance was too great and he fell a distance of about twenty feet to the ground, injuring himself very seriously. After being taken home, a doctor was summoned, who found that his wrist had been dislocated, and the bones of the fore finger and thumb of the left hand fractured. He also sustained a severe contusion on the head. Another boy was also seriously injured at the same place by attempting the jump. The practice is a dangerous one, and the accident referred to should deter other boys from attempting it again in the future.

District Court.

Before Hon. M. Hampton.

In the case of M. K. Moorhead & Co. vs. Tomlinson, Hartupee, & Co., previously reported, the jury found for the plaintiffs for the sum of $7,254.29.

Jaroslowski & Bro. vs. M. Simon & Co. et. al. and same vs. Bradley & Welton. This was an action on a feigned issue to determine the right of ownership to goods claimed to be worth some $16,000. Isaac Kruhman, a merchant of Canton, Ohio, purchased a large amount of goods from defendant, but while en route through this city, were attached by defendants' counsel. Kruhman subsequently made an assignment to Jaroslowski & Bros., for the full amount of the goods claimed. Defendants allege that the assignment was made by Kruhman for the purpose of defrauding them. Messrs. Mellon & Kirkpatrick and A. H. Miller for defendants, and Leasure & Hopkins for plaintiffs. The case was not concluded at adjournment, and will be resumed this morning at nine o'clock.

Outrageous Act.

A most diabolical act was perpetrated on Thursday night, by some unknown person, at the stable of Mr. David McKelvey on Veto street, Allegheny. The villain entered the stable some time during the night and deliberately cut the sartorius or principle muscles of the hind legs of a valuable horse, owned by Mr McKelvy. The deed was not discovered until morning, when the horse was so exhausted by the loss of blood that he had to be shot to relieve him from pain. The horse was a valuable one, and the owner was negotiating with a company to have him insured. There is no clue by which to discover the perpetrator of the act, but it is to be hoped he will yet be found.

Cut by a Woman.

Celia Burns, employed in the kitchen department of the Revere House, on Fifth street, was committed to jail yesterday, charged with felonious assault and battery, by George Crawford, porter at the above named house. George had made his way into the kitchen, when, as he alleges, she attacked him with a butcher knife, cutting him on the arm severely. The defendant acknowledged the cutting, but says that Crawford had been skylarking about the kitchen and hit her under the eye, which provoked the act.

The Monumental Fair.—Many hands were busily employed yesterday in decorating City Hall, in preparation for the Monumental Fair, which will commence next week. A great deal was done, much is yet required to be done, but with the spirit manifested, we doubt not all will be in readiness in proper season for the contemplated display.

The "Mudlarks" Declare War Against the Italians.

Yesterday morning information was received at the Mayor's office that two men were acting in a disorderly and outrageous manner at the corner of Wylie and Fifth streets. Officers Cupples, Dressler and Wrigley repaired to the spot and found that one of the men had disappeared. The other was still there and acting in the most unrestrained manner imaginable. They had made an attack upon an Italian named Gazzola, and expressed their determination to clean out his place, and after accomplishing this, to take all the apple stands on the route down Fifth street. One was arrested and taken to the lock-up. Some time afterwards, the police succeeded in capturing the other man, who turned out to be another of the same fraternity of "mudlarks," and well known in this city. He gave the police considerable trouble in arresting him, but was finally landed in the watch-house. It is quite probable that, in addition to the charge of disorderly conduct already made against them, another for assault and battery will be preferred by Mr. Gazzola. Both men were too drunk to have a hearing yesterday afternoon, but will have one this morning.

A Family Almost Suffocated by Gas—Attempted Robbery.

Some time during Thursday night the residence of Mr. John Morrow, on Rebecca street, Allegheny, a short distance below the First ward school house, was entered by a thief, and a fiendish attempt made to suffocate the family. An entrance was effected through the cellar, and thence to the upper rooms of the house. A gas jet, which was burning in the dining room, was extinguished, after which all the burners in the upper and lower rooms of the building were turned on. The thief then made a hasty examination of the premises, but failed to discover anything of value. In going down stairs he knocked over some article of furniture, the noise of which awakened Mrs. M., but when she attempted to rise she was barely able to do so. She went to a window, raised it up, and then brought her children near to it. The children were nearly suffocated by the gas. After sufficient time to prevent an explosion had elapsed, a light was procured, when it was discovered that the thief had gone out by the same way he came in, taking nothing of any value. Mr. Morrow was absent from home, which fact was doubtless known to the thief.

Daring Robbery.

Yesterday afternoon a horse drawing a wagon was found at some distance from the bank of the Allegheny river, and brought to Mayor Morrison to be identified and returned to the owner. Upon careful investigation, instituted by chief officer Samuel Long, of Allegheny, it appeared that the horse and wagon belonged to a man living in the vicinity of Pine Creek, wherefrom they had been carried away for an unlawful purpose. In continuing his search, officer Long soon discovered that two men had entered, the previous night, the house of a farmer named E. Hanson, and had stolen from him the greater part of two hogs recently slaughtered for the family. Being unable to carry such a burden on their backs, they succeeded in procuring the horse and wagon. The robbers went down to the Allegheny river, and on reaching the wharf took a skiff, on which they embarked their plunder and dismissed the horse, his services being no longer required. There is no clue to the perpetrators of this daring robbery, but it is to be hoped they will be discovered.

Presentation by Odd Fellows.

In Philadelphia, on Thursday evening, Grand Secretary, Wm. Curtis, was presented with a fifteen hundred dollar Five-Twenty bond by a committee of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, as a testimonial from the Odd Fellows of the State for his faithful discharge of duty during a term of twenty-six years. Several Pittsburgh P. G's presented Past Grand Charles N. Foster with a magnificent wooden star at the same time, which was placed about his neck amid much merriment.

The Insane Prisoner.

The insane man, Warren Evans, whose arrest by the police at the corner of Pride street and Pennsylvania avenue, we noticed yesterday, has been taken charge of by his friends, and will be taken to his home. He is a resident of New Brighton, and had come to town on the 8:30 train, having escaped from his friends. He is represented to be a peacable and respectable man. He has been deranged for some time, his insanity being occasioned by religious trouble.

In Our Advertising Columns we give notice of another dividend of the Venango Central and Duck Creek Oil Company—the second within two months. This company is in a prosperous condition, and from its present daily yield of oil, notwithstanding the low price, will pay two and a half or three per cent. per month. In addition to those they have, some six wells are in process of boring, with favorable signs of oil. The land of this company is situated on the bank of the Allegheny river, opposite Foster's island, and will have facilities for shipping both by rail and river in a few months. Considering the advantages and prospects of this company, it bids fair to excel, as good oil stock, even that of the celebrated Columbia.

Jail Bird Caught.—A. Arnold and brother, W. Arnold, about eight months since escaped from the Jefferson county (Ohio) jail. A. Arnold wandered through the West, appearing by day as a pedlar, thieving at night, and remaining but a brief period at towns where he stopped. At length he joined with Haight & Chambers' circus, as canvass man. The circus coming to this city, and his whereabouts being discovered by the Jefferson county authorities, last evening our Chief of Police, James Scott, arrested him, and he is now in custody. He will be returned to his old quarters.

Stealing Quilts.—Mrs. Grace McNeely, residing on Ross street near the jail, made information yesterday at the Mayor's office against Ann Riley, formerly a domestic in her employ, charging her with the larceny of two quilts. It is alleged that the quilts were stolen from the residence during the absence of Mrs. McNeely. One of the quilts was found in De Roy's pawn shop, where it had been left last Tuesday. The other has not been found. A warrant was issued.

The Temperance Movement.—Out of the whole number of conductors, nineteen, employed on the Pittsburgh and Manchester Passenger Railway, all, except two or three, appeared before Alderman Donaldson yesterday and took the total abstinence oath. Notwithstanding the sights of drunkenness that daily meet our gaze, the good work of temperance keeps moving and accessions to the ranks are being constantly made.

The Circus.—This morning the grand and final Zoological exhibition of the great circus and menagerie of Haight & Chambers' takes place at the Red Lion lot, Penn street, below St. Clair. This afternoon at two, and to-night at seven o'clock, farewell performances will be given. As this is universally regarded the best and most complete circus and menagerie, our readers should endeavor to be in attendance upon these final occasions.

Excellence and Beauty.—No photograph artists in the city enjoy a higher reputation for the excellence, beauty, and grace of their pictures, than Messrs. Van Pelt & Webber, corner of Fifth and Market streets, entrance No. 15 Fifth street. Pictures are taken in all kinds of weather and at prices as reasonable as can be obtained elsewhere in the city. Give them a trial and we are sure you will be satisfied.

The Philomathic Entertainment.—The grand literary and musical entertainment of the Philomathic Literary Circle, which takes place on Monday evening next, at the Academy of Music, promises to be a rare intellectual feast. From the programme we can safely predict that the entertainment will be the most interesting of the season, and doubtless will be largely attended.

Fuller's Church History informs us that there is scarcely a great abbey in England which, once at least, was not burned by lightning. The Copper Tubular Lightning Rods, with spiral flanges, manufactured in this city by Lockhart & Co., will save all kinds of buildings from damage by lightning.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the Chapel of the Third Presbyterian Church, (Sixth Street) at 7½ o'clock. A full and punctual attendance is requested.

Released on Bail.—J. C. Adams, whose arrest we noticed, charged by A. F. Chatony with larceny as bailee, was yesterday released on giving security in the amount of fifteen hundred dollars for his appearance at Court.

Rev. C. E. Swope, D. D., from Trinity Chapel, New York, being on a visit to his old parish, will preach to his old congregation, at Trinity Church, at the usual hour to-morrow.

Religious Notice.—Rev. C. D. Trumbull, of Dodgerville, Iowa, will preach in Dr. Sproull's church, Allegheny, at 10½ A. M.

Rich Mineral Discovery.—Near Tuscarawas, Ohio, ten acres of rich black band iron ore has been discovered. The vein is between nine and twelve feet thick, and has been disposed of to the Dover Furnace Company.

DIRTY PAGES

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1867.

SOME DAYS AGO we commented on the machinery of the law passed by the late Legislature to tax stock in National Banks in the hands of holders thereof. The creation of special Assessors to make the levy, the allowance to them of excessive compensation for their services, the fact that members of the Senate were allowed to dictate the appointment of Assessors for their respective vicinages, and that meritorious soldiers were passed by, gave color to the presumption that "a job" was intended in the peculiar framing of the law. This presumption may do gentlemen injustice. If so, that is their misfortune.

The Assessor for Allegheny county is Mr. GEORGE H. HOLTZMAN. His appointment he owes to Senator BIGHAM. It is stated, moreover, that the Senator's son is Mr. HOLTZMAN'S assistant; though what he wants of an assistant, is more than we can tell. This is a snug arrangement, and may be all right; but the aspect of it begets surmises.

MR. GREELEY AND THE UNION LEAGUE.

That Mr. HORACE GREELEY is an honest man, a genuine patriot, a large hearted philanthropist, and a clear headed thinker, even his personal enemies are constrained to admit. He differs from the Union League of the City of New York, and not a few besides, as to the best method of disposing of Mr. JEFFERSON DAVIS and other leaders of the Rebellion. Has he a right to his opinion, to express it, and to act in accordance therewith? That may seem a strange question to ask, at this late day, and particularly of Republicans. But there is need to ask it, and to reiterate it, until the import of it is fully comprehended, and the reasons for urging it duly appreciated.

If the slaveholding oligarchy, in the days of their highest power and arrogance, ever made so brutal and tyrannical an assault upon the Freedom of Opinion and Utterance, short of proceeding to personal violence, as has been recently made on Mr. GREELEY by most of the Republican journals, and by Union Leagues of New York in particular, we do not know where it was. This crusade is absolutely infamous. The assault is not so much upon Mr. GREELEY, as upon the right of Free Discussion and Manly Independence. If we differed from him a thousand times more than we do, we should none the less stand by him in an issue of this sort. Do the members of the Union League imagine they can, at this late day, put a true man under the fan, and destroy him, because he differs from them in opinion? If they do, they have gone so far through the great controversy for the Right of Opinion without learning any thing.

In this aspect of the case we are glad Mr. GREELEY has hurled defiance at his maligners, and signified his intention to give them a square fight. It is well to have it determined whether Opinion has passed from under the yoke of Southern despots only to fall under the yoke of Northern ones. There are hundreds of thousands who do not believe in letting Mr. DAVIS escape punishment, who believe just as little in knocking Mr. GREELEY down because he is not of that way of thinking. If the Republican leaders expect confidence to be reposed in them, they cannot too soon wash their hands of this infamy.

Wholesale proscriptions, confiscations, and executions have been tried, times without number, as instrumentalities for stifling the spirit of revolt. England has tried them in Ireland, Russia in Poland, and Turkey in the Grecian islands, but all to no avail. There are men who want to try these experiments over again in this country, hoping for better results. They reason from their own passions; not from a knowledge of human nature, and its development in the history of nations. For two years the war has been over. Smouldering embers of the conflagration occasionally reveal their presence by smoke or a transient glare of flame. But no probability exists of a renewal of the strife. It is time to look for the things that make for immediate and permanent unity. There is a possibility that some men, grandly constituted, might run magnanimity into weakness; but the danger is not in that direction. The wild clamor for blood that now fills the North shows that the real peril is in the demand for an unwise and baleful severity.

MAY ANNIVERSARIES.

The anniversary season in New York, where the benevolent and religious societies hold their annual gatherings, is fraught with interest to the religious world generally. Underlying the mere presentation of reports, financial statements, and the delivery of addresses, there is brought to the surface the elements of power these societies possess in their respective fields of labor, and there are also manifest indications of the feeling of the churches in these aggressive movements. Much that is done on these occasions is of a formal character, and lacks the fervor that is seen in the inside workings of these organizations. The facts and figures brought out by this mode, have a powerful effect in provoking diligence and even rivalry. It is well that these noble philanthropic societies are stirred to such activity. The world is vastly the gainer by this aggressive spirit.

Much of the remarkable augmentation of the income of the leading societies, within a brief period, does not arise from the abundance of money and prosperous times we live in, but mainly to the inward changes wrought upon the hearts of good men to give liberally of their substance, while they are engaged in the activities of life, and not wait until their decease to bequeath a legacy. By this means large bodies of money are now put to use under the eyes of the doners, thus escaping the uncertainties in temporal things, which lie in the pathway of all men. Many men would have died and been forgotten entirely, had it not been for their monumental gifts, by which their names will never be disremembered.

First and foremost among these institutions is the American Bible Society, undenominational and catholic in its work. The Society celebrated its fifty-first anniversary. The report of the treasurer shows that the total receipts from all sources amount to $781,089.14; of which there were from sales $431,658.88. During the year there were printed at the Bible House, [illegible] volumes; and in foreign countries, 313,[illegible], making a total of 1,249,318. Books issued from the Bible House, irrespective of the foreign issues, 1,016,354, value [illegible] the foreign [illegible] $633.73. The books circulated abroad [illegible] about forty languages and [illegible] in Total issues during the year 1,257,960 volumes. Books donated, 173,177 volumes. The entire number of volumes issued by the Society, during fifty-one years, is 22,640,404. Forty-five agents are regularly employed, besides the agents of county societies. There are also 20,373 voluntary unpaid Bible visitors or local agents. Grants by the Society, including the South, were made to the number of 100,281 volumes. In the last two years 804,140 families were visited. Several able addresses were delivered.

The forty-second anniversary of the American Tract Society took place upon the same day, at eight o'clock. The President, Bishop McIlwaine, being absent, Hon. W. E. Dodge presided. The total revenue of the Society $544,131.13. The colporteurs employed amount to 219; new publications, 126; volumes printed during the year, 837,676; publications, 7,886,648. The Society reports 30,581 Protestant families habitually neglecting stated preaching; also, 15,687 Roman Catholic families, and 5,647 Protestant families destitute of the Word of God.

The American Tract Society of Boston celebrated its fifty-third anniversary in the evening of the same day and at the same place, W. A. Booth in the Chair. The report shows that the total tracts issued during the year was, 1,526,500 copies; 389,250 volumes and stitched pamplets in covers, and 5,163,000 copies of the Christian Banner, Child at Home, and other papers. The gratitous distribution exceeded any former year. The entire receipts for the year were $160,569.78. It has accomplished a great work in the distribution of good literature, especially among the freedmen.

The forty-first anniversary of the American Home Missionary Society was held on the 8th., Rev. T. D. WOOLSEY, D.D. LL. D. President, in the chair. The treasurer reported the receipts for the year $212,567 63. Executive Committee reported that there are 846 ministers in the service of the society in twenty-nine States and territories. The number of congregations and missionary stations supplied in whole or in part, is 1,645. The number of pupils in Sabbath schools is 64,000. Fifty-three churches had been organized during the year. 31 had become self supporting. The additions to the church membership are 5,599. Comparing the operations of the Society with the previous year there is manifest progress.

The annual sermon of the Presbyterian Board of Missions was preached by Rev. J. L. NEVINS, late missionary to China. Thirty-four years ago the work of foreign missions was commenced. At the close of the first year (1837) this society had 15 ordained missions, 3 churches, 21 native members and 7 stations. Now the Board has 70 missionaries, 20 ordained native ministers and licentiate preachers, 42 organized churches, 60 stations and sub-stations, and over 7000 children in schools. In the past year sixteen missionaries and assistants were sent out. The receipts of the year just closed were $244,667 80. At no period have there been so many accessions reported to the mission churches.

The American and Foreign Christian Union held its eighteenth anniversary on the 10th, Dr. DEWITT in the chair. The Society has labored during the year in the following fields: Italy, Hungary, France, Belgium, Germany, Greece, Mexico, the United States, and several portions of South America. About twenty native converts have labored under the superintendence of the Missionaries, for the evangelization of Italy. A theological school has been established in Milan. Of the fifty applicants, only nineteen were received, for want of funds. This seminary has been supported by the liberality of American gentlemen abroad. The good work has prospered in Hungary, Germany, and in fact in all the foreign fields. In this country, particularly in the West, a great many Roman Catholic children have been taught in the Industrial Schools. Bible-women in great centres have done efficient service for the cause of God. The receipts of the Society are nearly $20,000 more than ever before, reaching over $110,000. The Anniversary exercises throughout are represented as being deeply interesting.

The twenty-first anniversary of the American Missionary Association occurred in the early part of the month. Rev. J. P. THOMPSON, D. D., occupied the chair. Addresses were delivered by Dr. THOMPSON, Rev. H. D. NORTHROP, and JOHN B. GOUGH. The latter made a characteristic and highly amusing speech. The Society labors some among the American Indians, Sandwich Islands, emancipated slaves of the West India Islands, and the colored fugitives of Canada, but its work is now chiefly among our freedmen. From the report we learn there are one million of school children among the freedmen. They need to-day twenty thousand teachers. There are in the field only two thousand. It is a very encouraging fact that at least two hundred thousand freedmen—one-fifth of what is reckoned as the school population—have learned to read within the last two years. It is well and truthfully said that no such evidence of a race springing to letters and actually attaining knowledge—in spite of poverty and threats and persecution—is on record in the history of nations. The receipts of the Society for the past year was $253,000. The whole number of scholars, 38,909; average attendance, 79½ per cent.; number in Sabbath schools, 18,010.

American Seaman's Friend Society held its thirty-ninth anniversary, W. A. BOOTH presiding. Annual sermon previously delivered by Rev. W. H. H. MURRAY, of West Meriden, Conn. The missionaries of this excellent Society are found wherever sailors congregate in the new or old world. Since 1859 the Society has shipped in the charge of converted sailors 2,210 loan libraries, for the free use of seamen. The Sailors' Home of New York, has entertained since its opening, twenty-five years ago, 71,997 seamen. During five years sailors have deposited with Mr. CASSIDY, in charge of the Home, for safe keeping, $211,614. Full thirty-three hundred men have been shipped without advanced wages. Receipts for the year, from all sources, $98,230 17.

While the American Female Guardian Society is to some extent a local organization, yet its object is to benefit all parts of the country that it can reach. Donations come in from all quarters. Thirteen thousand applicants have, during the past year, been benefitted in various ways by the Society. CHANCELLOR FERRIS, D. D., occupied the chair. Rev. STEPHEN H. TYNG preached an eloquent sermon on the occasion. Receipts, with the balance on hand, have been $87,768. The Society has an organ called the Advocate and Guardian, which has 36,000 subscribers.

The Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the American Congregational Union took place week before last. Rev. MARK HOPKINS, D. D., presided, and delivered an address. The Union of late years has been giving special attention to the promotion of Church education. The receipts for this purpose have been double those of any year except under the special effort of 1866. Churches have received aid in Baltimore, New Orleans, Memphis, Atlanta, and thirteen churches in Missouri. It is estimated there are embraced in Kansas, Missouri, Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan, 316 Congregational churches. Receipts of the year, $32,530.22; balance over last year, $67,119,18; total, $99,619.40. Total amount of appropriations paid feeble churches, $83,796.44. Besides the address of Dr. HOPKINS, several speeches of a social and personal nature were delivered.

The National Temperance Society held a business meeting and also a general mass meeting in the capacious Cooper Institute. At the former the reports showed that the cause has achieved great victories throughout the United States. The triumph of the Excise law in New York city caused jubilating feelings among the friends. Considerable importance was attached at the latter meeting, to the Congressional conventions in the House of Representatives, and in the legislative halls of New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and the success that had attended the efforts of the Publication Society. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Drs. CUYLER and HOPKINS, WENDELL PHILLIPS, and others. Receipts during the year, $26,592.15.

The American Anti-Slavery Society, like the Temperance organization, while not quite in the same category of the previously named societies, are regarded as auxiliaries to the promotion of morals and religion. WENDELL PHILLIPS, a radical of the most radical type, presided. We might note here that the history of the anti-slavery movement is most remarkable. An Abolition Society was founded in 1775, in Pennsylvania; BENJAMIN FRANKLIN, President, Dr. RUSH, Secretary. Ten years later a society was formed in New York; JOHN JAY, President, ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Secretary. The Christian Advocate says the "irrepressible conflict" began in 1819-'20. In 1831 GARRISON established The Liberator. The American Anti-Slavery Society was found in 1833. In 1840 the American and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society was organized! Then came the Free-Soil and the Republican party in order. The Emancipation Proclamation was the result. The Anniversary just held is but a fraction of the old society. A year ago the more moderate men, headed by WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON, retired from the society in the belief that slavery was dead. PHILLIPS and others thought differently. Their action and speeches this year were of the most violent type. The speeches, though inflammatory, were able.

We might notice the Anniversaries of other societies, worthy enough, but less general in their scope of operations, and less interesting to the public generally. Our space will not admit of further enlargement at this time.

Mr. GEORGE MUIR, of Armstrong's Coal Works, Penn township, Allegheny county, speaks as follows of the

REV. E. A. WILSON'S

Great Remedy for Consumption:

"I was reduced so low with consumption that I was unable to leave my bed, and my physicians informed me that they could do nothing more for me, my case being utterly hopeless, that I had not certainly over a month to live. At this stage I was induced to try REV. E. A. WILSON'S REMEDY, and to-day I am as well as any man in the world. Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.—SIRS: There is a great demand for your valuable STOMACH BITTERS in this neighborhood. We have been using them in the family for some time, and find them the best medicine of any for family use. Yours, J. N. CANDEE COLE.

EFFINGHAM, Effingham Co., Ill.

PINUS CANADENSIS.

A tree which is abundant in Canada, Nova Scotia, and the more northern parts of the New England States, and is also found in the elevated and mountainous regions of the Middle States, and abounds in medicinal virtues. Dr. Swett, of Boston, has prepared a medicine from the sweet inside bark of the pine tree, called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which is one of rare value in all debilitated states of the kidneys. It acts like a charm in all diseases of mucous membranes, enabling them to regain their lost tone and energy. It will be found well adapted to all those diseases, where Buchu has been tried and failed. It is likewise well suited to chronic coughs, and an infallible specific for old and debilitated cases of asthma. Many persons who at first only took a bottle of this medicine, to try, afterwards came back and got a dozen, or half dozen, which effected radical cures of diseases of the bladder and kidney of years standing.

Diabetes, a disease that has been looked upon as among the incurables, is immediately relieved by it. Notice the certificate of Asa Goodnue, published some time ago.

The United States Dispensatory, speaking of the pine, says: "it is prescribed in leucorrhœa, gleet, and other diseases of the urinary passages; in piles and chronic inflammation or ulceration of the bowels, in chronic catarrhal affections, and in various forms of rheumatism." It is exceedingly valuable in all gravelly affections, bloody urine, and where there is red and white sediment. It can be taken without interruption to one's usual avocations; and instead of sickening, produces a bracing, healthy power of endurance and vigor. Price, $1 per bottle; six for $5.

Ask for POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND. For sale by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at DR. KEYSER'S Great Medicine store, 140 Wood street. ap20

CARBON SOAP.

WASHING
MARK.

WARRANTED always uniform in quality, and made from the purest materials. If not satisfactory, the purchase money, in all cases, will cheerfully be refunded. Try it and be convinced.

The CARBON SOAP is made similar to that of most all other

Best Standard Soap,

But in addition there has been a new and valuable chemical compound added in the finish, by which all that harshness so peculiar to other soaps is entirely removed. The coarsest as well as the finest fabric can be washed with it and remain soft and glossy as new. One pound is equal to three pounds of ordinary Soap. And here lies its chief excellence over all other soap; it is simple, requiring no extensive or complicated direction for using. For bathing purposes it is certainly a luxury, leaving the skin soft and healthy, and can be safely used in washing the tenderest infant. For all cleaning and cleansing purposes it is without a rival.

Believing it to be SUPERIOR, and that it will be duly appreciated by a discriminating public, I desire it to stand upon its merits alone.

It contains no PETROLEUM, or any foreign substance; nothing of the kind.

Joseph Hannen vs. McKinney. Verdict for plaintiff.

C. H. Robinson vs. Joseph Lehpberger & Co. Defendants leased a store from plaintiff, but the latter surrendered possession before the expiration of the term. Action was brought to recover full amount of rent. Jury out.

Sheep Shearing Festival.

On Friday, 23d, in Upper St. Clair township, at the residence of Mr. James Fiffe, the Annual Sheep Shearing Festival of the Upper St. Clair and Snowden Township Farmers' Club and Wool Growers' Association was held. Notwithstanding the rain, and the wretched condition of the roads, between seven and eight hundred persons assembled at the hospitable mansion of Mr. Fiffe, among whom were a large delegation from this city. The premiums offered were for the best bucks and ewes, of certain specified ages, and also for the best shearing. There were over forty sheep entered in competition, and nine clippers entered the list as competitors for the premiums on shearing.

The judges at the close of the contest, announced the awards as follows:

Class A. For the best bucks over one year—First premium to Joseph Caldwell; second premium to Boyer and Townsend; third premium to Edward Wright.

Class B. For the best bucks one year old—H. S. Thompson, first premium; Archibald McMurray, second premium; William Thompson, third premium.

Class C. Ewes over one year old—Dr. C. W. Townsend, first premium; H. McMurray, second premium; William Thompson, third premium.

Class D. Ewes one year old—Alexander Gilfillan, first premium; William Thompson, second premium; S. H. Coole, third premium.

For the premium on shearing there were nine entries. The first premium was awarded to Thomas Trimmer, the second to Archibald McMurray; third, to J. H. Robb; fourth, to Matthew Ross.

Mr. Trimmer, who obtained the first premium of the Society, (eight dollars,) was also awarded a Gibson clothes wringer, valued at ten dollars, given as an extra award by Colonel J. T. F. Wright, editor of the National Agriculturist. Also, a pair of fine shears, awarded by Messrs. Beckham & Long, of this city.

The successful competitor for the above is from Havelock, Washington county, and was engaged by Mr. Cook, an enterprising wool grower, to shear his stock. The award was well deserved. This was the largest premium for shearing three sheep ever paid in the United States.

This Association is now in a very flourishing condition, its members numbering about one hundred and fifty of those interested in promoting and encouraging the improvement of all farm stock, but more especially the growing of the great staple, Wool, its success in which is already very apparent in the improved quality and condition of the sheep and wool in the vicinity of its operations.

FINANCE AND TRADE,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 24, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 138¼; Eighty-one bonds, 111¼; Five Twenties, 1862, 109¾; Five Twenties, 1864, 105⅝; Five Twenties, 1865, 106⅝; 5-20s, Consols, 108; Seven Thirties, first issue, 106¼; do, second and third issues, 105⅝; Ten Forties, 99⅜; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 73; Fort Wayne & Chicago, 97; Erie, 60; Chicago and North Western, 33¾; Chicago and North Western prefrd, 59; Chicago and Rock Island, 88¾; New York Central, 97¾; Reading, 103¾; Michigan Southern, 67¾.

Gold opened very firm to-day, but lower. It is expected that to-morrow's shipments will cover the immediate demand to protect 60 day bills, and with the falling off of cash remittances the premium will recede to former quotations. Large holders are free sellers, and predict lower rates. Government securities are very firm, and large amounts change hands. Seven Thirties are dull and lower. The share market presents no new feature. Fort Wayne is firm and has advanced; the balance of the list is quiet, and the North Western shares are lower.

Money is more active for good collaterals. Commercial paper is difficult to negotiate, except prime short paper. The local money market works very close, and contraction is the order of the day.

We would caution our readers who hold any apparent worthless oil stocks based on real estate (fee simple) not to throw their shares away; there are signs now that the oil business will revive again, and with better prices for oil, the smaller wells would pay to operate, and new fields would be prospected. Next season oil may be selling at $8 and $10 per barrel instead of $2,75 to $2,80, as at present.

—The Philadelphia Ledger, of Thursday, says: The effect of the failure of the large cotton house at Liverpool, of Frazer, Trenholm & Co., was still apparent in the gold room yesterday. The failing house had the reputation of large wealth, and on this, their bills have had considerable currency here without the usual lien on the cotton until the bills were discounted or paid by the house. In the absence of all knowledge of the particulars of the failure, foreign exchange rules very unsettled. As the suspended house have a branch at Charleston, it is feared that the consequences of the default may extend to that place; indeed, it is reported that some of their bills bear the endorsement of the Georgia banks.

—At the west money is in good demand, and a considerable drain from the local centres to the interior is looked forward to for the purpose of moving the wool crop. In the regular jobbing trade there is a moderate business reported, but it is limited to supplying immediate necessities, and merchants are holding very light stocks of goods. It is expected that this dullness will continue until the probable character of the crops becomes more carefully ascertained. Meanwhile, it is satisfactory to know that they afford every indication of being unusually abundant.

—The Cincinnati Gazette, commenting on some recent failures in that city, says: A crash has never followed a year of preparation for such an event; and there is hardly a prudent merchant or a manufacturer, or a banker in Cincinnati that has not, for a full year, been putting his house in order. This is not the way to get up a financial revulsion, but it is the way to prevent it. Crashes usually come like a clap of thunder in a clear sky. They never have come when people looked and prepared for them for a full year.

At the bottom of the troubles that are now being experienced lie the crop failures of 1865 and 1866. But for these we should have a state of trade very different from that which prevails; but we would not be as well prepared for a storm as we are now; The country was going ahead too fast. Men had become too anxious to make money. There were more people speculating than were producing, and it seemed to be believed that the country could be more prosperous upon the principal adopted by the two men who are reported to have made money by trading a pair of jack-knives. This delusion has been dispelled. The days of small things have returned; and the productive labor of the country has been vastly increased. If, therefore, we look through the surface to the foundations it will be found that the solid interests of the country are in a much more healthy condition than they were one or even two years ago. That which was essential to chasten and steady people; to modify desires; and to lead seekers after wealth to turn their attention from the inflations of mere bubbles to the production of something of real value, has been forced upon us by necessity. But the result will be seen, not in a crash, but in a healthy revival of business. The danger is not that there will be no recovery, but that the experience of the times through which we are passing will too soon be forgotten; and that another period of dangerous inflation will be inaugurated.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 24, 1867.

The general market presents no new characteristics worthy of special notice; the demand for most of the leading commodities is restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, while, so far as prices are concerned, there are no material changes.

GRAIN—We can report a sale of 2 cars Spring Wheat, in elevator, at $3,10. Oats firm and in demand but unchanged—may be quoted at 70 to 72c. Corn is dull and weak but unchanged—sale of 50 bags Shelled at $1,02. Rye is scarce and firm at $1.70. No movement in Barley.

FLOUR—Is dull and weak, with a downward tendency, but, as yet, unchanged. We continue to quote at $14,50 to $15 for Spring Wheat; $16 to $17 for Winter Wheat, and $19 to $20 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour is selling at $9,50 to $10.

PROVISIONS—The demand for Bacon seems to be steadily improving, the exceedingly high prices of fresh meat having largely increased in consumption. We continue to quote at 9½c to 9¾ cts for Shoulders; 11¾c to 12¼ for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 15¾ to 16¾c for Plain and Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Dried Beef 22½@23; Lard 13 to 13¾c; and Mess Pork, $23,00 to $23,50.

POTATOES—There is an active demand, and as the supply in this market is almost exhausted, prices have still further advanced. Sale of 1 car prime Peach Blows, to arrive, at $1,20 per bush.

BUTTER—Continues very dull, and prices are barely maintained. Prime to choice fresh Roll is selling at 15 to 18c.

EGGS—The demand is fair and the market steady, with regular sales of fresh packed at 19 to 20c. Receipts increasing.

NEW VEGETABLES—Sales of 20 boxes new Tomatoes (a little less than a peck in a box) at $1 per box; 10 bbls Norfolk Peas at at $5 50 per bbl. Radishes at $5 per bbl.

HAY—Prime Hay is in fair demand while common is almost unsaleable at any price. Sale of 17 bales at $25; 17 at $27; and 50 at $27—all on wharf; and 7 wagon loads at $25 to $28.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches are dull and drooping, quarters having been offered to-day at 10c—prime halves are selling at 15 to 16c. Apples, 8 to 9.c

CHEESE—Is selling at from 14c to 16c, according to quality.

FISH—Sales of 25 half bbls Lake Herring reported at $4,50, and 20 do White Fish at $8 per half bbl.

OIL—There is a steady demand for Lard Oil at 87c to 88c for No. 1, and $1,08 to $1,10 for No. 2.

PIG LEAD—Sales at 10¾.

LIME—Sales of White at $2.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 24, 1867.

CRUDE—The market for Crude was very quiet to-day, but a single sale reported, 72 bbls at 12, packages included. There seems to be a little firmer feeling, which is in consequence of the fact that there is but little spot oil offering, and the arrivals continue exceedingly light. There is no improvement in the demand, and taking the price of refined for a basis, Crude ought to be lower, and our refiners cannot, it is alleged, really afford to pay more than 6c. We have no late advices from Oil City—the eastern markets are quiet and unchanged.

REFINED—There was rather more activity manifested in the market for bonded oil to-day, the sales, in the aggregate, being larger than usual, but prices are no better—in fact, the tendency still seems to be downward. We can report a sale of 500 bbls for immediate delivery in Philadelphia, at 26c; 500 for July at 27½c; 500 for August, at 28c; a "call" for 500 during balance of the year at 29c, and $1 per bbl; 1000 prime light straw to white, on spot, at 25¾, and 500 for June, at 25¾c.

ARRIVALS—But a single arrival reported to-day, 72 bbls for Capt. Jas. Wilkins.

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 24, 1867.

There has been a fair volume of business in metal during the past week, and while the transactions, in the aggregate, were rather larger than usual, and a little firmer feeling seems to prevail on the part of holders, prices have undergone no quotable change. The stock in this market, although fully equal to the present demand is not as large as generally supposed, and this, of course, has a tendency to stiffen holders, and they do not seem disposed to make any material concessions in order to effect sales.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was about a stand last evening with nine feet in the channel by the Allegheny, and eight feet by the Monongahela marks. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant and all that could possibly have been desired for the transaction of out-door business.

The only transient arrival we have to report is the Belle, from Cincinnati. The Glasgow, from St. Louis, and the Ida Rees, from Cincinnati, are among the first boats due. The Glasgow will doubtless get in to-day.

There were no departures aside from the regular packets. Business was more active at the landing yesterday, the offerings of freight being more liberal, though there is still plenty of room for improvement.

The towboat Warner left for Louisville yesterday, with a tow of seven barges of coal. The Star, for Memphis, with eight barges; Hercules with eight barges for Louisville, and the Ormsby with five, and the Lioness with eight barges, for Cincinnati, will get out to-day.

The Glendale, Capt. J. H. Hare, with the veteran Capt. James Mellon in the office, will positively leave for St. Louis this afternoon at five o'clock, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. The Glendale has no superior in the trade. The Maggie Hays will load in turn after the Glendale.

The swift and reliable Belle, Capt. Laughrey, with Mr. J. W. Chambers in the office, is the regular packet for Cincinnati to-day leaving promptly at noon. Capt. Laughrey proposes to run regularly with the Argosy, leaving here every Saturday, and Cincinnati every Tuesday.

The Urilda left for Oil City last evening with a moderate trip. The Allegheny River packets appear to be doing a very fair business, and, we have no doubt, are making a little money.

The following is the freight list of the Belle, from Cincinnati: A Ballew, 25 bbls vinegar; R E Sellers & Co, 18 bxs yellow dock, 11 bxs blood searcher; Carson, Darlington & Co, 10 ale bbls; Lemon & Weise, 6 tables, 1 ward; Holmes, Bell & Co, 12 bales cotton, 1 bbl lard oil; Eagle Cotton Mills, 52 bales cotton, W A Shepard, 1 pkg drugs; J H Parker, 125 tcs sugar cured hams, 2 trcs hams, 2 tcs beef; Clark & Co, 5 bgs feathers, 30 bxs wine, 1 bbl do.

The St. Charles came up from New Orleans to Cairo in 5 days 23 hours and 23 minutes; time to Natchez 24 hours and 40 minutes; to Vicksburg 35 hours, and to Memphis 3 days. She made seventeen business landings for freight and passengers.

The clerk of the City of Cairo reports three men killed at Point Pleasant, Mo. On Saturday officers attempted to arrest a man who resisted. The officer shot him. The friends of the deceased then shot the officer and friend who assisted him.

The verdict of the jury in relation to the cause of the explosion of the Lansing is as follows: "And we jurors aforesaid, having examined the circumstances connected with the explosion of the boilers of the aforesaid steamer 'Lansing,' do further say that the boilers of the said steamer 'Lansing' exploded by reason of an undue pressure—cause of pressure unknown.

The R. E. Lee made the run from Memphis to Cairo in 17 hours and 12 minutes—distance 240 miles, so that she averaged 15 miles an hour. This is said to be the fastest time on record, beating the Eclipse, A. L. Shotwell, and City of Cairo.

The Ida Rees left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday, and the Kate Robinson, enroute from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, was at Cairo the same day. The Messenger left New Orleans for Cincinnati on the 19th.

A St. Louis telegram, under date of Wednesday, says: The river has risen pretty fast for forty-eight hours, and the heavy rains have set many of the little streams above here dashing down in torrents, swelling the main streams. The Lower Missouri has risen rapidly and considerably. A boat went for that river yesterday drawing five feet and no delay is expected. The Mary McDonald has withdrawn from the Arkansas trade. She makes a trip to Fort Berthold, and will thereafter run to Vicksburg, in place of the Pearce and Gaty. The Armenia departed last evening for Pittsburgh, with nearly a full cargo, and the Nightingale arrived.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of Thursday, says: The Peerless was withdrawn from the Neville trade, because the parties who bargained for her purchase from Captain Williams recently, failed to fulfill their part of the contract. The sale will yet probably be consummated, and she will be placed in that trade again in a short time.

The Nashville Gazette, of Tuesday, says: We notice from our St. Louis exchanges that the subject of boiler iron was under discussion in the Steamboatmen's Convention, and it was the prevailing opinion that the Tennessee charcoal iron was the best in use. We are glad to see the subject brought before the leading boatmen of the country, and we hope ere long to chronicle the fact that the manufacture of boilers is confined to the celebrated Tennessee charcoal iron. It is an indisputable fact that an explosion has never occurred to a boiler made of this iron, and this of itself speaks volumes in its praise.

We clip the following from the Louisville Journal: Capt. R. E. Neal, of the Indiana, telegraphed to Capt. Dan Richards, the well known boat builder of this city, that the boat had struck a stump and would need docking, and asked him to have a dock at Portland ready for the boat when she came in. Capt. Dan had a dock all ready, and resolved to run it over the falls on Saturday evening. Mr. Fred. Little, a young man employed by Capt. Richards, undertook the job. The dock started and went well enough until it got down near Wave Rock, where it got into the eddy, and for three quarters of an hour the dock and its passenger, Captain, and pilot swung round the circle. Little got tired of that, and set to work to extricate himself. He had a long plank and a rope on his queer craft, and he tied the rope to the plank and shoved it out into the current, which was swift enough to draw the dock out from the eddy. Little soon had the satisfaction of landing at the Portland wharf. Captain Little is a voyager bold, but doesn't care about another trip on a day dock.
